To our sponsor and friend,
Miss Dorothy Cottrell,
we dedicate The Marshallite of 1938.

PROPERTY OF
THE LIBRARY OF VIRGINIA
RICHMOND, VA

Foreword:

The staff of the 1938 MARSHALLITE has tried to record in picture and in story the events of our high school career, and to recall the pleasant memories and friendships of these years.

Mr. James Coleman Harwood

He looks upon all beauty of the world
And chooses with a classic skill the Truth,
Then lending out his mind and heart and soul
He shares his dearest treasures, all, with Youth.

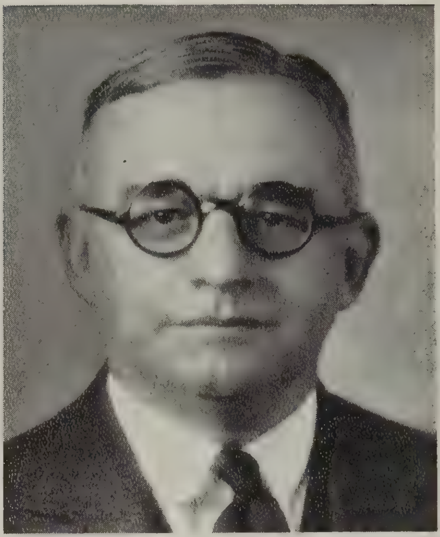
OUR SCHOOL



Mr. J. Taylor Robinson
Assistant Principal

Chemistry Laboratory

STATIONED on duty in the lobby to guide visitors to John Marshall we see a group of people walking blithely up the marble steps into the entrance. We greet them and invite them to inspect the shrine presented by one of the local department stores. This beautiful gift is an exact replica of the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States. After looking at the memorial we decide to show our guests the John Marshall Hall of Fame. There we find pictures of some of the United States Presidents, and other famous men, all of which have been presented to the school by previous graduating classes.

AT WORK

Now we enter the Monocle office where the biweekly newspaper is in the making. Members of the journalism class, which is made up of specially chosen pupils, are busy writing stories, columns, and editorials, determined to get the work in before the dead line.

Having carefully watched the staff of the paper in action, we invite our visitors to glance into Senior Headquarters where the members of our class of 1938 are gathered about the desk of their sponsor, Miss Dorothy Cottrell. Here industrious Seniors make plans for the term's activities and issue class cards that will admit the members into the delightful dances, parties, and other activities of the class.

Further down the hall we enter a room where we first hear Patrick Henry's famous "Give Me Liberty or Give Me Death" oration and then Lincoln's Gettysburg address being recited by young public speakers.

Continuing on the first floor we enter a room which shows all signs of having gone Shakespearean. In front of the room the instructor is reading "Hamlet" or "Macbeth." On the walls are posters further explaining the study of Shakespeare. Also we find small reproductions of the stages of that time. In one corner there is a filing case. On the drawers are small signs reading, Manuscripts, Business, and Cuts. This shows that in the afternoon Shakespeare is forgotten and the school magazine, The Record, is prepared and sent to the printer.

We leave the main floor, step into the elevator, and in a short time we are on the second floor. The next class that we interrupt is very business-like. The teacher is instructing her students in the administration and how the government of our city proceeds. She is preparing her pupils to be more efficient citizens.

Now we see Seniors who are bending studiously over their geometry with furrowed brows trying to figure out why a sphere looks like a circle or a pyramid looks like a plane. They are preparing for the higher mathematics which they must face if they attend college after high school.

We travel on to a physics laboratory, where the workers are busy proving statements made by their ancestors. They happily discover facts which help to unravel what has already been said. We glance out of the window, and see the nearly completed athletic field that will some day be the center of interest. In the next class more scientists are studying the greatness of that wonderful power, electricity. They are even putting their knowledge to use by preparing the lighting for the Senior play, She Stoops to Conquer, which will soon be presented.

We go back to the room we had missed, and are surprised at the sight which we behold. In one corner of the room are students busily discussing plans for the scenery to be used in the next play to be given by the newly organized Class of Drama. In another corner a group of girls and boys are studying the script of the play. This is a division of public speaking who call themselves the Stage Door Class.

We could spend hours here, but, realizing that our guests have much more to see, we guide them to the room in which we hear Vergil read by the advanced Latin students.

The next few moments of the tour are taken in seeing the wonders of mathematics revealed when one takes trigonometry. Here future mathematicians learn to measure through angles distances that could not be measured with a yard stick.

As we are ascending the steps to the third floor we hear the faint and far off voices of the members of the vocal class. These pupils work hard because they realize the growing importance of music and wish to be able to take part in the many festivals.

We next enter a class in which is taught a modern language. About the room we see "D. J.'s" on many sweaters. This shows that they are members of the Don Juan Spanish Society.

After having listened to the students reading the foreign languages, we continue on our journey. Realizing that time is passing quickly and that we cannot stop in every room, we visit a few more of the most interesting. From one room issues the buzz of the sewing machines, from another floats the odors of freshly cooked pastries.

We are about to go on to the basement to see the boys' shops and art classes when the orchestra begins to practice in the auditorium. This arouses our curiosity and all of us go in to enjoy a concert. As we are about to leave, the A Capella Choir, dressed in their bright blue robes, begin to sing.

Now we go to the office. Congratulations to Mr. Harwood are profuse as the variety and uniformity of John Marshall High School's administration are expounded.

Bidding farewell to all, we leave by the Marshall Street entrance, for a full view of the school.

SENIOR HISTORY

WE OF the Senior Class look forward to futures which, in all probability, will be very bright for many of us. But we are not too busy to recall the past experiences of our high school years.

We came to John Marshall proud, almost to haughtiness, in the knowledge that we were full-fledged high school students. When the time rolled around for class organizations, the Sophomores were fortunate in securing Miss Allene Archer as sponsor.

Excellent also were the class officers. Tom Herbert received the coveted position of president, while Marjorie Farley was chosen to assist him. Martha Beverly and Billy Frazier were secretary and treasurer, respectively. It was Louise Hall who reported the events of our class so ably. Our choice for historian was none other than Bruce English. "Little John" Hurst was our faithful mascot.

The first big event of our Sophomore year was a baby party held in the gym on November 25, 1935; Sophomores and Juniors alike cavorted about in rompers and magnificent bows of ribbon. Even a mock wedding was held. When the party terminated, everyone had made new friends.

Amid blue and pink decorations and to the lilting tunes of Jack London's orchestra, as Sophomores we again rubbed elbows with our Junior brothers on January 17, 1936. A waltzing contest was one of the momentous happenings of the evening.

With a program that smacked of Major Bowes, our Sophomore Class broadcast over WRVA on Saint Patrick's Day in 1936. Tom Herbert was the genial Major himself, while Bruce English acted in the capacity of announcer.

When May 22, 1936, rolled around, all Sophomores hastened after school to Forest Hill Park where, amid gales and gales of laughter, many wieners and marshmallows were consumed. A scavenger hunt and games greatly amused all present.

We ended our year as Sophomores by entertaining the graduating class at a dance in the gym on Senior stunt night in June of 1936.

When we returned to school as Juniors, we selected the following officers to guide us throughout a successful Junior year: Garland Harwood, president; Mildred Fisher, vice-president; Frances Williams, secretary; Carter Noble, treasurer; John Gordan, historian; Pat Abernathy, reporter; and John Hurst, mascot.

A hike and wiener roast which was held October 23, 1936, at Forest Hill Park was the first get-together of our Junior year. Everyone participated in a treasure hunt after which the customary wieners and marshmallows were enjoyed.

On November 20, 1936, the eve of the annual T. J.-J. M. game, we danced with the Senior members of our school in the gym. It was indeed a festive occasion, and no one there could have been gayer if he had known the results of the game the following day. John Marshall triumphed over T. J. by a score of 12 to 0.

In a contest to decide the most beautiful girl of the Junior Class, the following results were announced: Ann Lee Tillery was voted most beautiful, with Dot Brinser a close second.

We, of the Junior Class, celebrated the closing of the September February term by having a gala dance with the Seniors and Sophomores. The gym was bedecked with many flags donated by the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

The night of March 17, 1937, saw us dancing to the tunes of Ray Jenkins and his orchestra at an "economy" dance with the Seniors. Formal attire was not banned, but sport togs were the order of the evening.

Amid decorations of blue and gold, Senior Class colors of 1937, we entertained our Senior brothers and sisters at a dance in the gym on April 23, 1937. An added attraction was a delightful floor show which Archer McDaniel and James Odell prepared for our amusement.

Later in the spring, Bryan Park was the scene of a merry gathering. It was the annual outing of the Junior Class. The scavenger hunt had us roaming around for divers articles, even polliwogs. After the hunt we all enjoyed immensely an honest-to-goodness baseball game. Reluctantly we turned homeward about six o'clock.

On a night in June, 1937, we entertained the Seniors at a dance and looked forward to the time when we should be Seniors.

At the beginning of our Senior year Lady Luck frowned on us when she compelled our beloved friend and sponsor, Miss Archer, to resign her position as our adviser. But we soon found an able leader in Miss Dorothy Cottrell, who kindly consented to guide us through our final year of reading, 'riting, and 'rithmetic.

After two weeks of voting, when the ballot box was opened and the votes tabulated, Clinton Moore found himself to be the president of the class of '38. Virginia Henderson discovered that her many friends had chosen her to assist Clinton as vice-president. Kitty Doggett grabbed her notebook and started her career as the Senior Class secretary. Paul Irwin furrowed his brow over financial worries and settled down to his job as treasurer. Because she made such a good

Junior reporter, the Seniors chose Pat Abernathy to report their news. Yours truly was delighted and pleased to take up his work as Senior class historian.

Our first social event of the year was the Junior-Senior dance on October 22, 1937. The gym was resplendent in decorations resembling Jacob's coat, the music alluring; everyone had a delightful evening.

When we again decided to dance away our cares, it was with the Sophomores that we tripped it "on the light fantastic toe" the night of December 10, 1937, amid lovely decorations of blue and gold, Sophomore class colors.

Just before our Christmas holidays, on December 23, the Senior Class presented the annual Christmas entertainment. John Marshall's fairest, dressed in quaint costumes, danced to the rhythm of "The Blue Danube," and other Marshallites presented solo numbers.

On February 11, 1938, the Juniors entertained the members of both the February and June graduating classes at a dance in the Wythe gymnasium.

We held our "campaign dance" as the climax to our membership drive on March 4, 1938. The new members of both the Junior and Senior Classes brought their dates and danced "The Little Apple" to the tune of the "Dipsy Doodle."

For our gift to the school, we chose a portrait of the immortal creator of The Raven, Edgar Allan Poe. We were fortunate in getting David Silvette, a noted Virginia portrait painter, to do the painting.

Reviving an old custom, the officers of the Senior Class decided to have a "Senior Class Day" in lieu of a class night in June. The MARSHALLITES were distributed to the members at lunch in the cafeteria, and the afternoon was spent getting autographs.

After the worries of examinations were through, an all day outing was next on our calendar in June. The graduates spent a grand day at Lake Ely.

The Sophomores entertained the Seniors at their last school activity, a dance held in the Wythe gym the night before graduating exercises.

Of course we shall long remember the ceremony at which we received those long awaited diplomas with perhaps a lump in our throats at the thought of not returning in the fall.

DE WITT ELLIS, Senior Class Historian.

JUNIOR HISTORY

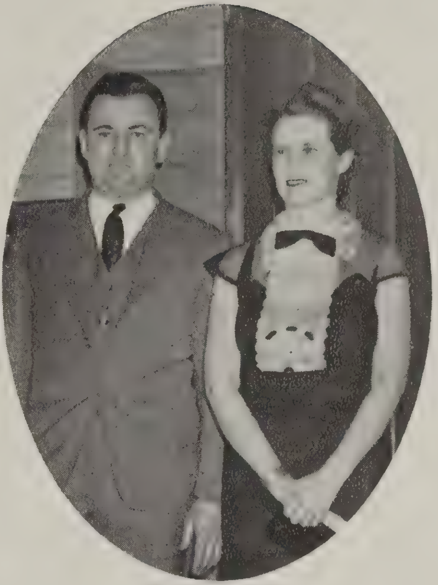
WE HAVE put aside the childish characteristics of our Sophomore year and taken on the more sophisticated ways of full fledged Juniors. We Juniors cannot expect any special recognition because we are neither the youngest nor the oldest members of the student body. To be sure the life of a Junior during school hours is harder than the Sophomores, yet outside we have many more activities than our younger brothers.

In our Sophomore year, we had made an auspicious beginning under Miss Karon Kennedy as sponsor, by having a class membership of 462. We had chosen maroon and gold as class colors, and the red rose as our class flower. That year we were led by Lewis McGehee as president, who was helped by Dorothy Robins, vice-president; Nancy Oxenham, secretary; Arthur Mills, treasurer; Cecil Jones, historian; and Sue Tankersley, reporter. With this large membership, a great deal of enthusiasm had been manifested. Both our scholastic and athletic records were above the average. Our cadets made a fine showing. We helped in the operetta and in all the school functions. The Monocle subscription campaign in Wythe was managed by our class, and in turn the paper gave us many write-ups about our dances and picnics. Altogether we feel our Sophomore year was very successful.

When we came over to the John Marshall building as Juniors, we chose as our sponsor

Mrs. George Wall, who has been a great help and inspiration to us. We are looking forward to a very successful year as Seniors under her able leadership.

At the beginning of our Junior year all of the Junior home rooms nominated persons to run for all the offices of the Junior Class. From these the officers of the Junior Class were elected. The voting took place during October, and the following persons were chosen to lead us: president, Tommy Moncrief, John Marshall's football star; vice-president, Evelyn Cosby, one of the most popular girls in the school; secretary, Betsy Rowe, another very attractive girl; treasurer, Ernest Stroud; historian, Sam Riddell; reporter, Charlotte Atkins. Allen Stegar was made the business manager in charge of getting the orchestras for the Junior dances.



Among the first activities of our class during the first term was a dance on October 22, 1937, given by the Senior and the Junior classes. This dance was held in the gayly decorated Wythe Gymnasium. Ed Harris's orchestra furnished rhythmic music for the occasion, and the night was all too short for the fun-loving Seniors and Juniors.

Another dance given by the Junior Class on December 17, 1937, also turned out very successfully. Gay decorations were strung across the gym making it look very much like a real ballroom. Juniors turned out in full force, packing the dance floor to capacity. The girls in their bright evening dresses added much to the color of the occasion.

The Christmas holidays then came and school was closed for a week. When the Juniors returned, they decided to join with the Sophomores in their dance to be given January 14. The Juniors were very much interested in seeing that their younger brothers were having a good time.

On January 28, 1938, the Junior sponsor, Mrs. Wall, entertained the officers of the Junior Class at her home. They played several games, and then danced to the music of her radio. Shortly afterward they were served hot chocolate and cookies. This party ended with Allen Stegar trying to teach Mr. George Wall how to truck.

The "Who's Who" contest, one of the last activities of the Junior Class, is over and the votes have been counted. It was found that the handsomest boy is Otis Tribble; the most beautiful girl, Dorothy Robins; the most intellectual Junior, Cecil Jones; the most typical Junior, Florine Nuckols; most popular boy, Ernest Allen; most popular girl, Evelyn Cosby; best all-round boy, Tommy Moncrief; and best all-round girl, Nancy Siler. A great deal of fun was had in voting for the "Who's Who" contest. A large list of nominations was made, and some friendly rivalry and campaigning shown during the contest.

Near the end of the Junior year the Juniors gave a tea dance in the Wythe gym. They danced to the music of Roy Dennis's orchestra. Everyone, dressed in their school clothes, seemed to enjoy this dance very much, in spite of the very warm weather we were having.

The next month the Sophomores and Juniors gave a dance together in the Wythe gym. This time we again danced to the delightful music of Ed Harris's orchestra. This was our last dance as Juniors, and for this reason we turned out several hundred strong to celebrate with the Sophomores who were soon to be promoted to our rank. There were nice dreamy waltzes, rhythmic swings, and the Big Apple in which all the crowd joined in the fun.

We all voted it by far the best dance of the season, and decided to make our dances in the Senior year even gayer. Many Sophomores and an even larger crowd of Juniors had a good time.

At the end of the term the usual picnic was held at Forest Hill Park. This was perhaps the most enjoyed of all the Junior activities. At the Junior picnic we played games of all kinds. The boys selected two softball teams and had a good ball game. They had track teams made up of girls and boys who competed only for the glory of victory. There were races in which the boys who took part ran backwards, with their hands clasped behind them, while the girls ran forward. And then there were races to see who could eat his wiener first, and to see who could eat the greatest number of wieners. Besides hot dog sandwiches, we had pickles, marshmallows, and fruit of all kinds. It was such fun to eat the wieners we had roasted, even though often a great deal of soot was consumed, and to toast our marshmallows over our great big fire. After having eaten all they could, everybody sat around the fire and sang familiar songs. Later they started for home, tired but happy, having had such a lovely evening.

The Juniors and the Sophomores, under the supervision of a faculty committee, this spring, worked on plans to begin Student Participation in John Marshall. The system which they planned was accepted by the faculty, and will be started this term. Officers are to be elected by the student body, and we feel that next fall the system will be working splendidly. Student participation will be very different from the student government system used long ago in our school. Students will not be given entire control of the school, but will be trusted with part of the responsibility. The plan decided upon will start with responsibility in small things which the students will learn to manage before attempting larger projects. We feel that student participation will make better citizens, as the duties and rights of a citizen will be impressed upon the students. This system, new to us, will have to be given time to grow and become a part of all of us, students as well as faculty, a thing which cannot be accomplished at once. It will take time, but we as Juniors feel that if we get it begun this spring, next year we will have a start toward improving certain conditions in our school, and that in years to come this system of student participation will work at John Marshall as well as it does in many other schools in our country. We plan to make a beginning by informing the students of the system in an assembly program, have pupils visit schools already using the proposed plans in order to see how they are made to work, and then start here in some little things like help in keeping our cafeteria clean, in helping in our home rooms, and in taking care of our school property. Our president, Tommy Moncrief, has been very much interested in the project, and was one of the students who presented the system to the faculty, when it was to be voted upon.

Our Junior year has ended. We are now almost ready to close the doors on our happy-go-lucky days and settle down to real honest-to-goodness work. We look back over the many happy events of the past year and feel that we have made a success of our Junior Class. We feel the satisfaction of one who has accomplished something well worth while. The many good times the Juniors have had during the past year represent what has been done in John Marshall throughout the years. Even though we have to turn our backs on one of the happiest periods of our lives, we are glad to look forward to our Senior year with all of the enthusiasm that we possess.

SOPHOMORE HISTORY

IN SEPTEMBER of 1937, we had climbed one step higher in our school careers, for we were at John Marshall. One more of our hopes, one more of our cherished desires had come true, as we were now where we had looked forward to being. We had no fears or doubts as a youth is wont to have when embarking upon something which is new, but were confident and sure of ourselves in the halls and classrooms of our new Alma Mater. This was the beginning of our high school life. Being in such a big place as this was new to us. We were startled at the many people there, but we soon became used to them all and were glad because of the many happy days we've spent with our big sisters and brothers, the Juniors and Seniors.

After having been assigned to our home rooms and classes, we were introduced to our principal, Mr. Floyd Fowlkes, in our first assembly program. Throughout the year with the assistance of the Music Department, we spent many joyous hours in the auditorium.

Fortune smiled on us again this time in the form of a sponsor. Miss Elsie McClintic willingly consented to be our leader, to guide us through our first year of high school. Our first action was that of electing officers who would be capable of directing us. After the campaign and the election we found ourselves in the hands of the following officers: Billy Bryan, who filled the president's shoes; Ann Robins who was placed under Billy as the vice-president; Louise Lindsay got out her pad and pencil to fill the position of secretary; Jack Thrasher, who hoped there would not be any red ink, took up the job of treasurer; Edith Wray was handed the responsibility of keeping the class on paper, when she was elected to be reporter; Harvey Farmer was elected to be class historian. With these as our officers we looked forward to a noteworthy year. There was much discussion on the subject of class colors, but navy blue and gold were finally selected. These colors were made into a brilliant banner with the navy blue as the background.

Our first dance was held with the Seniors in the George Wythe gym in December. The gym was deautifully decorated in the class colors. We had a drawing card, Willard Jones's orchestra, and the dancers could really keep time with his Maniacs of Swing. This was a big chance to make friends with the Seniors. They certainly proved to be excellent workers and were bubbling over with spirit and energy, ready to go and make the dance the best one ever. Although the weather outside was very disagreeable, many couples turned out in all their finery to add color to the gym. The evening was a most joyous one and we all had a wonderful time.

This was the first time that we had had a chance to so proudly display our Sophomore banner which was a "1939" in gold letters on a blue background. It was hung on the wall opposite the balcony where the orchestra was playing.

On the receiving line were Mr. James C. Harwood, our principal; Miss Dorothy Cottrell, Senior Class sponsor; Clinton Moore, Senior Class president; Miss Elsie McClintic, and other school officials.

Shortly afterwards we had another dance, this time with the Juniors. The music for this gay affair was furnished by Ed Harris and his orchestra. To add to the loveliness of this occasion the girls were dressed in their Christmas gowns. The success of this dance can be attributed to the help and advice of the many teachers and the work of the Juniors and Sophomores. When we left the dance we carried with us pleasant memories and light and happy hearts. We had met many Juniors and felt a strong tie between us and the school because of our new companions.

We felt a little proud of ourselves in November as the Sophomores had three out of their number to be in THE MARSHALLITE play, The Saturday Evening Ghost. In fact, Martha Jean Blayney, James Pulliam, and Dallas Manning did a fine job of representing the Sophomores. Many of us went to this play and found it very amusing, and we were glad that we had not missed it. This was really an experience to be recorded in our high school memory book because of its great importance. Because we were so well represented, we came in large numbers to see the two performances. We are very proud of our dramatic artists in the Sophomore Class and expect to see them rise to fame.

We discover also that the Sophomores are well represented in still another field, for nine of them are members of the Valentine Museum Auxiliary. They also do a good job of representing our class. Clifton Long is president, Marguerite Whittel secretary, and Barbara Parker, Ruth Wicker, Alec Allen, Mary Bowden, Dorothy Parkerson, Bonnie Fenn, and Katherine Tompkins are the other members of this auxiliary.

In April we held another dance with the Juniors. The music was enchanting and all present had a grand time. The decorations this time were done admirably with Junior colors, which made a very pretty gym. You could have closed your eyes and danced on and on, had not the closing hour arrived. This dance will long remain in the memory of the many Juniors and Sophomores who were there.

A little later in the spring we had a wonderful picnic at Forest Hill Park. There we forgot our school cares and had a great time. We had a treasure hunt, but we had to divide the prizes as two of the groups tied. We had the customary food for a picnic and we stayed until the last wiener and marshmallow had been roasted over the sparkling flames and eaten. The odor of the cooking food entranced most of us back to have a second roast. Before we left we sat about the smoldering remains and talked and sang songs until the last ember died out. We returned home very tired but at the same time reluctantly. We shall never forget the happy time that we had on our first outing.

Near the first of June the Seniors were again our guests for what was their last high school dance. But how glad we were that it was not our last! The dance seemed to be devoted to the ever popular "Little Apple" which had almost entirely banished the once famous "Big Apple." The swing music of course had its part on the program.

In our class, plans for student participation organization were received with great interest. Talks were heard advocating the system and explaining the duties of the pupils. The students were to be trusted with part of the responsibility of the school and were to be supervised by the faculty. Unlimited use of the honor code would be offered which would greatly increase the spirit of co-operation in the school. Plans were made to have our pupils visit the schools already using the proposed system and to study its advantages. A group of students appeared before a committee composed of faculty members and pupils to give their opinions of the plan, and later a vote was taken by the faculty to adopt the plan.

Our happy Sophomore year is ended now. We have finished one big year of joy and gaiety at John Marshall—a year we shall never forget. We have tasted of both work and play. We know now what it is to be a Marshallite and we know what it means. And so, we look back on a grand year, but we look forward to our next two years here with even greater enthusiasm.

How proud we are to bear the name of members of John Marshall High School, and how lucky we are to be able to return!

Harvey Farmer,

VIVE le Français! That is the way we of the graduating class feel toward French, as the completion of a most eventful year draws to a close.

Our department sponsored two most interesting movies at the Capitol Theatre. In the fall of 1937 La Kermesse Heroique, one of the greatest of French cinema productions, was presented. In the spring term for 1938 a play, Le Medecin Malgre Lui, by the immortal Moliére, of the seventeenth century, was shown. In connection with the latter picture, our classes met and sang the song in the picture, as well as many other French folk songs.

Instead of the usual bridge party, we gave a bingo party which proved to be very entertaining as well as profitable. These parties are given to raise money for the scholarship fund. This scholarship, to the University of Richmond, is awarded each year to the boy or girl who has made the highest average in French or Spanish for four years and can offer a second foreign language for college entrance.

The annual tournament for French students is an important feature in the work of all enjoying the study of French. At the Thanksgiving meeting of the Modern Language Association of Virginia, the benfits and progress of the Modern Language Tournament were discussed.

Second year French pupils are delighted with their new book, Aventures par la Lecture, in which much interesting information concerning French civilization, life, and culture is given. Les Deux Idoles, a thrilling detective story, and Topaze, one of the most popular plays produced since the World War, are two new books which the third year students have had the pleasure of reading this session. An excellent new grammar has been adopted, which we like very much.

To the future students of French we wish you the successful activities which we have enjoyed in our past years of study, work and play.

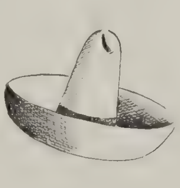
IN THE past year the Spanish Department of John Marshall was a great success.

Argentina was the general cultural subject under consideration in all classes. The importance of a sympathetic understanding of our neighbors to the south together with their history, geography and ways of living was stressed.

El Águila, our Spanish paper, increased its circulation since its first publication. The contributions to this publication were obtained entirely from the students who study Spanish. We are very proud of our paper because it is the only one of its kind in the state of Virginia.

The Don Juan Club which was organized last year now numbers more than forty very active members. Miss Marie Rooney is our faculty adviser and sponsor. The Club has enjoyed parties and outings at intervals during the year.



Las Pascuas de Navedad, showing how Christmas is celebrated in countries where Spanish is spoken, was given in the auditorium by the students with songs and pageantry just before the Christmas holidays. This entertainment was our great success of the year and was enjoyed both by the faculty and the student body.

We have had many diversions and social reunions, but we have enjoyed the hard work too because that is what it takes to learn a language well, and the beauty of Spanish makes it worth while.

HERE we are, nineteen strong, the largest group of John Marshall students who have ever entered the Modern Language Tournament. We are competing with more than two hundred and fifty pupils of French and Spanish from high schools and private secondary schools all over Virginia.

How eagerly we are waiting to hear the result of the examination after the papers are graded at the University of Virginia! How jolly if all of us win prizes, certificates, scholarships or medals! And then, to feel that we really know more about the language we are studying and the people who speak that language! That is the best of all!

Last year John Marshall had twelve contestants in French and Spanish. Seven of them won honors and Mary Elder's rank was first in the state. Bernice Stephenson, who won the scholarship to Westhampton College, and Mae Shelton, who won the scholarship to Hollins College, have made high records in their respective colleges.

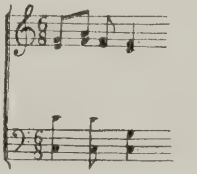
THE A Capella Choir, under the direction of Mr. Charles Troxell, is made up of a group of pupils chosen because of their musicianship and vocal ability. It developed greatly during the second year of its organization during which time a large repertoire of unaccompanied numbers was acquired.

Because of the interest shown by Mr. J. C. Harwood the choir was able to get robes. Organization of each department took place. Russell Nowell was elected president; Frank Buhrman, president of the basses, and first vice-president; Ralph Moore, president of the tenors, and second vice-president; Dorothy Allen, president of the contraltos, and third vice-president; Lucille Leber, president of the sopranos, and fourth vice-president.



The first program of the year consisted of Stephen Foster's numbers, given in the school auditorium. At a meeting of the Rotary Club in the fall, the choir gave a program which was broadcast. During the Community Fund drive, the workers were entertained by the choir at one of the luncheons in the armory.

On November 24 the choir sang for a group of state music teachers who were here for their annual convention. When Miss Luz Isabel Torres gave a Spanish play, at Christmas, the choir sang several Spanish carols. Another program was given in the auditorium in February.

The choir represented John Marshall in the State festival in the spring. In May a concert was given at the Fredericksburg State Teachers College by the choir.

EACH member of this Club belongs to the Hi-Y Fellowship of the Young Men's Christian Association, affiliated with the John Marshall High School. He is also a member of the Hi-Y Fellowship of Virginia and of the United States. The purpose of the Club is "To create, maintain and extend throughout the community high standards of Christian character." This is realized by the four "C's," "Clean Living, Clean Speech, Clean Sports, Clean Scholarship."

Any boy of John Marshall High School is eligible to be a member of the Hi-Y. If he is found to meet the requirements of the Club, he becomes a permanent member of this organization. At each State Fair Exposition the Club maintains a booth from which it derives an income to last through the year. There are many activities connected with the Club such as wiener roasts, opossum hunts, parties, and other forms of entertainment. In January the Club made a contribution to the John Marshall Library. Every year a convention of delegates from each district into which the Hi-Y Clubs are divided is held. This time the district which included the John Marshall Hi-Y held its convention at Richmond. The theme of the convention was "Contagious Christian Character."

UNDER the same friendly guidance of Miss Catherine Cross and that of their new sponsor, Mrs. Lillie Ellett, the Girl Reserves continued to live up to their motto, "To find and give the best," in their new year's work.

This year the John Marshall and Thomas Jefferson girls worked together in joint programs. The reception of new members in the form of a recognition service at Grace Covenant Church in October was the first of such programs.

December brought with it the Christmas Mother-Daughter Tea with candles, Christmas carols, and all the trimmings. As their special Christmas project, the Girl Reserves, co-operating with the Girl Scouts, collected and repaired toys for the Christmas Mother in the Craft Shop of the Y. W. C. A.

The Midwinter Conference contributed helpful suggestions as well as a good time to the president, program chairman, and other members of the cabinet who attended it.

Co-operating with the Thomas Jefferson Club, the John Marshall Girl Reserves met at the "Y" for the purpose of discussing the duties of the officers and possible improvements. Our bingo party also occupied a prominent place in our spring calendar.

Other activities included Miss Dorothy Cottrell's talk on her trip abroad, and a trip through one of Richmond's large factories.

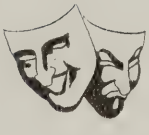
FOR the first time in the history of John Marshall, a Class of Drama has been organized to give full credit towards graduation. This class, a branch of Public Speaking II, has decided to call themselves the "Stage Door" division.



The first play studied for production during the year in this class was "Dear Brutus," by J. M. Barrie. The members of the class whose performances were most outstanding were chosen for the parts. Also this same group put on the Senior play which was presented on April 8 and 9. This dramatization, "She Stoops to Conquer," was given by the Seniors.

A scientific play was also broadcast over a local radio station during the past term. The class has been unusually successful in all attempts in studying current events in the dramatic world, play production, and the background of drama.

The members of the class have entertained several times by giving short plays or parts of plays for other home rooms and friends. Each Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday has been used in studying stage settings, putting on plays, applying of action and expression to the script, and also how to make up for the parts. On Monday the class hears from the commentators who report on events on stage, screen, and radio. On Friday the students of the class devote the period to history of drama.

The class has proved to be beneficial and well worth the time of the class members.

THE library machine functions move smoothly because of the efficiency of its many cogs, not the least important of which are the student library assistants.

These assistants make up the Library Club. Those who are assistants are required to maintain certain standards in scholarship, efficiency in the assigned work in the library, and time of service.

They meet about once a month in the homes of various members and enjoy business, instructive, and social activities. The Club sponsored the celebration of National Book Week in November, 1937, with decorations, exhibits and displays, and endeavored to make the faculty and students library conscious. They have added to the attractiveness of the library with pottery, plants and drapery.

JOHN MARSHALL'S chapter of Quill and Scroll, International Honorary Society for High School Journalists, strives to maintain in its own school the high standards of journalism and creative endeavor for which the whole society stands.

The year's first initiation was broadcast through the facilities of a local radio station, the initiates pledging themselves to uphold the lofty ideals which in Quill and Scroll ceremonies are symbolized by lighted candles. Old and new members met at the annual Christmas party and discussed together their past work and present plans. A joint meeting was held with the Thomas Jefferson chapter at which Miss Edith Lindeman, movie critic, spoke. No initiation was held at the Poe Shrine this year, but the members met there for tea and the taking of the annual picture.

Informal afternoon refreshments many times helped the journalists in their daily work and regular meetings.

To be eligible for Quill and Scroll a pupil must be in the upper third in his class standing, have done distinctive work on one of the three publications, and be recommended for all-round citizenship by the sponsor.

THE Van Vort Debating Society has succeeded this year in upholding the high standards and ideals which its name signifies, and has truly progressed under the capable guidance of the sponsor, Miss Mary Richeson.

The requirements of a Van Vorter, as set by the members themselves, are few, but exacting. She must be dependable, intelligent, and a good mixer. These characteristics seem simple, but the members of the Debating Society have found that not only does a person possessing such qualities make a model Van Vorter, but a splendid citizen and neighbor as well.

The Van Vorts have held many informal debates and open forums at their bi-monthly meetings. At one of the most interesting meetings an engrossing discussion of the boycotting of Japanese goods was held. The members discussed at another meeting their prospective vocations and careers. The purpose of these discussions has been, not to argue, but to stimulate interest in current problems and their solutions, and to encourage clear, fair thinking.

The Van Vorts took a dramatic turn this year when they presented at five assemblies a one act comedy entitled "Stuffed Owls." Mrs. Charlotte De Courcy and Miss Richeson supervised the presentation of the farce concerning a small town Woman's Club. The members had a delightful time rehearsing for the play and their initial dramatic venture was voted a success.

New members to the society were welcomed at a Christmas party given in the school. Old and new members enjoyed together punch, cakes, candy, and games. Mrs. Charlotte De Courcy and Miss Eva Branch were honor guests at the party.

To all Van Vorts who shall follow us we wish much happiness and distinguished achievement.

JOHN MARSHALL'S newspaper, The Monocle, is published biweekly by the students of the school.

Established in March, 1929, it has been a consistent winner in interscholastic press contests for eight years.

Its aim is to present with interest, accuracy, and timeliness the life and activities of its school, while striving to uphold the ideals, encourage the initiative, and reflect the enthusiasm for which John Marshall is famous.

Work on the publication is done by a staff composed of pupils who have had a term of newspaper work and a journalism class which learns the technique by working for the paper. Miss Charles Anthony is the faculty adviser.

JOHN MARSHALL, 6—ALEXANDRIA, 6

Displaying fine driving power and a fair defense but a weakness for fumbling, John Marshall opened its season with a 6-6 tie with George Washington High School of Alexandria. Siegfried drove through the Alexandria line repeatedly for long gains, but his play was marred by three fumbles on his part, one coming on Alexandria's 6-yard line.

JOHN MARSHALL, 7—RANDOLPH-MACON, 0

Showing a much better team than that of the week before, John Marshall defeated the Randolph-Macon B team, 7-0, at the city stadium. The backfield, strengthened by shifty Paul McMullin, looked better both on defense and offense. McMullin scored the Justice's touchdown and Winnie Siegfried smashed through center for the extra point.

JOHN MARSHALL, 19—LYNCHBURG, 6

Journeying up to Lynchburg, Coach Dave Miller's eleven next played Glass High School of that city and defeated them 19-6. In this game, Melbourne Clark, husky halfback, made the first score of his high school career. He smashed through center to mark up the six points. The other scores were made by Moncrief and Bucher. Bucher scored on a pass from Winnie Siegfried, who later made a lateral pass to Tommy Moncrief for the extra point. The hard running of Siegfried featured the game.

JOHN MARSHALL, 0—ST. CHRISTOPHER, 6

The first defeat of the year was administered by St. Christopher's Saints at the city stadium with the score of 6-0. The Saints showed a very fast attack with a very light backfield running behind a light line. Billy Whitehead and Knowles gained entrance through the Blue-White's line, which played sluggishly. Again the fumbling complex seemed prominent, with Bucher fumbling deep in Saint territory to end the Justice's only real threat to score.

JOHN MARSHALL, 0—ROANOKE, 7

Jefferson High of Roanoke avenged a long list of defeats by winning over the Millermen 7-0 at the stadium before a very small crowd. The Justices seemed not to have kept up with their early season form and played a sluggish type of ball. Kiser of Roanoke went over for their six-pointer after Wayrick, quarterback, had passed to Monihan to put the ball on the one-yard line.

John Marshall, 12—Hopewell, 7

The Marshallites finally broke back into the winning column at the expense of Coach Leslie Parson's Blue Devils from Hopewell High School. Siegfried scored both touchdowns for the Miller clan, but could not convert the extra point. He was ably supported by Tommy Moncrief, peppy little quarterback, whose end runs gained much yardage.

John Marshall, 12—Maury, 6

Going down to Maury, the Justices trounced a hard fighting Maury team 12-6. In this game Winnie Siegfried made the longest run of his high school career, running 84 yards before he was finally brought down on Maury's 17-yard line. On the next play Tommy Moncrief scored for John Marshall, the other touchdown being made by Siegfried. Archie Carroll, Maury's stellar athlete, scored Maury's touchdown.

John Marshall, 6—Danville, 13

The next week the team played at the city stadium, and was beaten 13-6 by the Cardinals of George Washington High School of Danville. The game was played in pouring rain and on a field covered with a sea of mud. The Justices counted in the first half when Tommy Moncrief snaked through the Danville line for our only touchdown. Butcher did some fine kicking for John Marshall, while Reeves of Danville also played well. Winnie Siegfried made many good gains through the line and passed several times, but none were completed in the rain and mud.

John Marshall, 0—Thomas Jefferson, 7

In the most colorful game of the season in the entire state, John Marshall lost to Thomas Jefferson by the score of 7-0 before 13,000 madly cheering fans. The game was fought on even terms during the first half. John Marshall made one serious threat in the first quarter when the Blue-White contingent marched down to the Red-White one-yard line, but here Winnie Siegfried fumbled and Hazelgrove of Thomas Jefferson recovered, thus ruining the chances for a score. Billy Walker scored for Tee Jay on a five-yard plunge through the line. Siegfried, Moncrief, and

In the annual Thanksgiving Day game with Coach Roland Day's Petersburg High School team, the Millermen were beaten by 7-0 before 9,000 fans on Cameron Field. The undefeated Crimson Wave had its hardest fight of the season, but managed to eke out the decision.

HONORS

Several Justices were honored with positions on the all-City team, and Winnie Siegfried and Clinton Moore made all-State. Siegfried was also chosen on the all-Southern.

SIEGFRIED BOLTZ

COMING back this year with a team that was torn to pieces by graduation, John Marshall played a seventeen game schedule, winning eight and losing nine games.

The Blue-White boys opened their schedule at the University of Richmond annual prep carnival with a close 37-34 victory over a strong, smooth playing quint from Central High School in Washington. The Justices led during the whole game and staved off a last quarter Central rally to win. Mike Taylor, who was chosen all-carnival guard, was the star of the game, making ten points. Two timely field goals by Adolph Steinberg aided the team in the last quarter.

Next the Marshallites played Ashland in a practice game and defeated them by a score of 35-19. Levin and Steinberg led the team with 15 and 5 points, respectively.

Journeying to Ashland, the Justices played a surprisingly strong Randolph-Macon B team and again won in a hard-fought game with the score, 31-26. Monk Boltz, captain, outscored the other players with 16 points.

The five beat West Point, 54-19, with Levin and Malloy leading Justice scorers with 11 and 10 points, respectively.

Remaining in the Wythe Gymnasium, the Millermen were given their first defeat by George Washington High School of Alexandria by 22-35. Winnie Siegfried was high for John Marshall with 11 points, while Noland scored the highest for both teams with 19 points.

Grossman Steinberg Levin Thompson

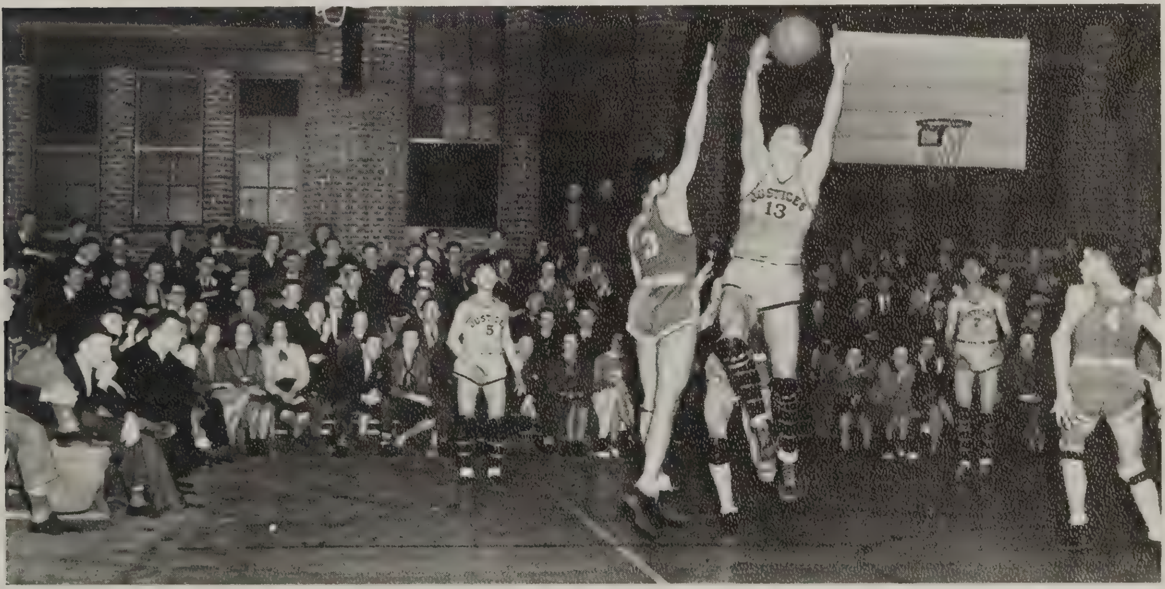
At Hopewell the Justices lost 33-27 to a fast Hopewell team. Ernie Thompson hit the hoops for 9 points to take top honors. Ed Phelps starred on the defense for the Blue Devils.

The Crimson Wave of Petersburg was unable to cope with an improved John Marshall team, and the Miller coached boys won 43 to their 31. The Justices led, 21-16, at the half and were never headed.

Before the largest crowd to see a basketball game in Richmond in a long while, the hoopsters from Thomas Jefferson smashed the Justices,



BUCHER GREENE

45-19, on the former's court. The game was close during the first three quarters, the score being tied seven times. However, the tired Justices were unable to withstand a last period Tee Jay rally, and the Red-White boys pulled away to win. Ernie Thompson and Irving Levin with 10 and 8 points, respectively, topped the Justices. However, Dick Johnson, Tee Jay center, took high honors for both teams with 19 points.

In a preliminary to a college game the University of Richmond Frosh beat the Justices 29-17. Levin and Grossman led John Marshall.

John Marshall next showed the boys from Woodrow Wilson what a rally is, and defeated them 39-35 in a last minute flurry of scoring. Winston Siegfried, hefty center, led the Blue-White five with 17 points. "Chesty" Grossman and Irving Levin were next best for John Marshall with 8 and 6 points.

The Justices were beaten by the big Commodore team of Maury High of Norfolk, 31-29. Practically the whole Jay Em team figured in the scoring, with Siegfried, Steinberg, Boltz and Grossman each making six points.

The next day the quintet lost another hard-fought battle, 40-27, to the Woodrow Wilson Presidents. Boltz and Steinberg again led the Justice attack with 9 and 6 points, respectively.

Coach Miller's boys showed a much improved team, but it again was not quite good enough to beat their old rival, Thomas Jefferson, and they lost, 29-21, at the University of Richmond Gymnasium. Monk Boltz with 6 points was the sparkplug of the Justices. Morris Robinson and Mac Pitt, Jr., led Tee Jay.

A few days later the Millermen again defeated Petersburg 33-23, Grossman, Levin and Boltz leading the Eighth-Streeters with 8 points each.

The Justice team lost two games in a row after this, one to Hopewell and the other to Alexandria, 38-36 and 29-25. Levin and Steinberg were high in the Alexandria game.

Ending up their season with a 45-28 victory over Maury High of Norfolk, with Steinberg starring, the Justice team played their best game.

TRACK

MONCRIEF BERRY

THE second season for track under Coach Charles, "Hank," Noble began with a meet scheduled with Episcopal High School of Alexandria, but due to an epidemic of measles at that school, Coach Noble's strong Justice team had to forego their first contest.

However, the harriers showed that the little rest had done them no harm, because they defeated the Indian Papooses in a dual meet in Williamsburg by a score of 68-50. Charlie Hartsock was the individual star on the Jay Em team at this meet. He lived up to all of the pre-season predictions by winning both the high and low hurdles and taking third place in the pole vault, totaling 11 points. However, the highest score was made by Phillips of William and Mary, who had 16 points. Other winners for John Marshall were Lee McLaughlin, who won in the shot put and was third in the discus throw; Clinton Moore took the pole vault at 11 feet; Moncrief took first place in the javelin throw; while Siegfried and Tweedie won the high and broad jumps, respectively. Paul McMullin ended the score for John Marshall when he made second place in the 100-yard dash and in the 120-yard high hurdles.

The District C meet at the University of Richmond was the next contest for Coach Noble's men. The Justices emerged with a top score of 56 points while Washington and Lee of Clarendon had 32, Thomas Jefferson 31, and Hopewell 24.

The feature of the meet was the half-mile relay in which Hopewell outran George Wash, John Marshall's anchor man, and reached the tape first with

McLAUGHLIN MANAGER KLEIN

Wash about six inches behind. In the same meet a record jump was made by Ed Thistlewaite of Thomas Jefferson who captured first place in the high jump. However, his competition was very little as Clinton Moore was absent because of a sprained ankle. Hartsock again distinguished himself by leading the Justices by 8 points.

Next week found Coach Noble's men in Durham where they attended the Duke University International Meet. Because of the unusually good athletes, our thin-clads gained only third place at the meet. Maury led and Newport News was second in the contest. Two records were broken—one by "Knubby" McLaughlin, who heaved the shot 50 feet, 2½ inches; the other by Ed Thistlewaite, who vaulted 12 feet, 2½ inches. "Knubby" took second place in the discus and made a total of 8 points. Clinton, "Honey," Moore took second place in the pole vault, while Hartsock and Tillery were second in the high jump and 220-yard dash, respectively.

The team of the Red-Whites from Tee Jay exhibited unexpected opposition when the John Marshall lads held them to a score of 64-50. The outstanding players were the same record-breakers, Lee McLaughlin and Ed Thistlewaite. "Knubby" broke both the discus and shot put records with heaves of 125 feet, 10 inches and 51 feet, 11¼ inches, respectively. Thistlewaite defeated "Honey" Moore without any trouble in what was billed the battle of the day.

The annual Tidewater meet was next on the schedule and the boys from Jay Em left with another third place. Newport News and Maury held first and second places as they had previously.

The stars of this meet were from the Tidewater section with the exception of McLaughlin and Thistlewaite, who both broke records in the shot put and pole vault, respectively, Lee heaved the shot 52½ feet while the uptown lad leaped an even 12 feet in his performance. Callett of Hampton set a record in the javelin throw, and Moore of Maury in the low hurdles. In the other events, which were all close, the Justice performers fought hard and well.

A week later the Justices journeyed to Lynchburg and after defeating the Hill-Toppers by 62-55, returned to the University of Richmond, where they lost the first dual meet of the season to the Richmond Frosh, 69 to 47. The Justices were paced by Captain Lee McLaughlin who won the discus and shot put.

George Wash won both the 440 and the 880. The baby Spiders were paced by a former Marshallite, Jimmy Ely, who took the 220 in the record time of 2.24 seconds. He also led in the 100-yard dash.

In the state meet the Justices characteristically won third place. This was probably the main meet of the year. Maury and Newport News again won first and second places respectively. At the same time we beat our city rivals, the Red-Whites of Tee Jay who took fourth place. As usual McLaughlin and Thistlewaite broke records. Lee annexed the shot put title, throwing the 12-pound sphere 51 feet, 9 inches, and Thistlewaite cleared the bar at 12 feet, 5 inches. Lee also won the discus throwing. Individual honors, however, went to Dodd, stellar Newport News cinderman, who completed his evening's work with 20 points and earned recognition as the best all-around trackman in the state.

This season, while not a banner one, was a good one. Each member of the squad, although most of them were inexperienced, must be com-

WHEN Coach Dave Miller called for candidates for baseball, some sixty men reported to him for practice. The squad had at its head Captain Morris, "Monk," Boltz, who plays outfield position on the team. Several lettermen—Billy McCann, Jimmy Brooks, Durwood Robertson, "Knubby" Parham, "Georgie" Williams, Ernie Thompson, Curtis Jennings, and Roscoe Moody—returned to help the newcomers begin the schedule.

The Justices had to look forward to a very full schedule and opened the season with an invasion of North Carolina, where they met Duke University Freshmen and Durham High School. In the Duke game the final score was 9-2 for John Marshall. Ernie Thompson pitched for the Justices and allowed only 10 hits. When the Millermen met Durham, the opposing team put up a splendid fight and won the game by a 3 to 2 count in 14 innings. During this game the team that won got fewer hits than the John Marshall team. Our team made 11 hits to the 2 made by Durham. The first 10 innings were pitched by Jimmy Brooks, and Woodrow Haynes, who pitched the last 4, was credited with the loss.

When the Blue-Whites came back to Richmond they went to Westhampton where they had a tilt with the University of Richmond Frosh, and the final score was a 5 to 2 loss charged against the Marshall team. Richmond outhit us 7-5 with McCann leading the downtown stickmen with two bingles out of three trips to the rubber.

The next conflict was with Hopewell. The Justices made three errors in the course of the game but managed to get six hits from "Bosh" Pritchard of the Hopewell team. The Blue Devils garnered 9 hits from Ernie Thompson, the Jay Em flinger, who won the game by 5-0.

Dave Miller's team staged a comeback against the same nine that beat us two weeks previous in North Carolina, winning from Durham High by a score of 12-2. Brooks and Bowles, who hurled for Coach Miller, fanned nine Durham would-be hitters and allowed five hits. The Justices were led by "Knubby" Parham, who almost made a homer but was thrown out by a three-foot margin.

Outhitting the Wave, the Marshallites downed Petersburg by 6 to 1, due to the masterful pitching of Ernie Thompson. Williams and Boltz got 2 hits apiece and this helped to win the game by 5 runs. The team as a whole did very well, as McCann, Lucy, Robertson, Parham, and Thompson each got one hit.

The Millermen swamped the Papooses of William and Mary 32 to 3 in a game played at Williamsburg. The whole squad saw action in the contest.

Setting off for Lawrenceville, a few days later, the Eighth-Streeters led the game by 4 runs on the Lawrenceville nine. The score was 8 to 4 and Ernie Thompson pitched well for the Justices.

Again returning to North Carolina, the Jay Em team defeated Roanoke Rapids by 11 to 3. Thompson and Parham ran up the score by getting 4 hits out of 5 chances at the bat. Southpaw Jimmy Brooks held the Tarheels to 9 hits.

A city title tilt was won when the Downtowners beat St. Christopher 13 to 0. Thompson had his curve working perfectly, for the baffled Saints were able to make only 4 hits during the entire 9 innings. Stolen bases figured greatly in this game for the John Marshall players. Captain "Monk" Boltz came beautifully out of a battery slump to lead the team with 2 hits, one a double.

Petersburg and Lawrenceville were again played and the Justices defeated them with a score of 7-1 in both games. Jimmy Brooks pitched both of these games and Captain Boltz led the hitting attack, getting two triples in the game with Lawrenceville.

The battle most looked forward to was the one against

Thomas Jefferson which was held at the Tee Jay field. The Eighth-Streeters were victors 3 to 0. The game was a very close and exciting one. During the eventful third inning John Marshall made 2 hits, 1 error, a sacrifice, and a wild pitch, but scored the 2 runs that helped to make our players victorious. Thompson also pitched this game and allowed only 2 hits for the Tee Jay boys.

When we again met Hopewell, "Bosh" Pritchard showed his ability to check the John Marshall hitters, and hurled his team to a 3 to 1 victory over the town team.

While on a trip in Lexington, Coach Miller's proteges whipped and tied the Freshmen teams of V. M. I. and Washington and Lee. The scores were 12 to 3 and 0 to 0, respectively. In the game with the latter, we made 7 hits to 2 made by the University.

A week later we gained another victory over the Tee Jay team when we beat them 17 to 6 at the stadium. Action began in the first inning when Robertson made a triple with the bases loaded and a moment later ran home on an infield hit. Brooks kept the Jeff hitters in check with a nine-inning performance.

A few days after this successful game we annexed the city championship when St. Christopher was defeated 4 to 3 at the city stadium. Thompson pitched and the Jay Em squad got three hits but made a rally in the ninth inning in which George Williams singled home the winning run at the same time the bases were loaded. The hitting of Williams of Marshall and that of Polk Neal of the Saints and the fielding of Roy Lucy of John Marshall featured the contest.

WITH only one defeat to mar their record of 1936, the hockey team started their 1937 season with high hopes of completing an equally successful season.

The Collegiate girls shattered the plans of the Justice lassies in their first engagement by defeating them 3 to 0.

Disheartened, but more determined than ever, the Blue and White girls next met Petersburg with the same result—defeat! The Crimson Wave handed them the short end of a 2 to 0 score. But their big game was yet to come! The Jay Em lassies were eager to repeat their last year's victory over the Jeffersonians, their deadliest rival. The game, however, ended in a scoreless tie.

Their one remaining game, with Saint Catherine's, ended in defeat, J. M. taking a 4 to 0 licking.

The regular schedule completed, all eyes were turned toward the tournament at Saint Catherine's, which was to determine the all-Richmond prep team. In the two games our team played in the tournament, we had one tie and one defeat. The girls from Whaley tied the John Marshall lassies by a score of 1 all, and the Saint Catherine team again defeated our team by a 3 to 0 count. In the tournament, however, three of the John Marshall girls came through with flying colors and won places on the all-Richmond prep team, an honor much envied and much to be desired. Our players thus honored were our Captain Dare Kuester and Lucille Cline, and Helen Smith. The tournament was quite interesting and instructive as well as great fun to take part in. The Saint Catherine's girls were lovely hostesses and their field is a nice place for the play-off.

Next fall our hockey team will miss the services of Captain Dare Kuester, center half, Kathryn Wright, left inner, Kathryn Doggett, right half, and Audrey Kimbrell, left full back. However, with new material always plentiful, our very efficient and able coach, Miss Webb, will see to it that these vacancies are filled with experts after a little practice.

BASKETBALL

AT THEIR first meeting of the season the John Marshall girls' basketball squad elected La Verne Camp as their manager. The large group were given their bright blue gym suits and settled down to practice in earnest.

It was very difficult to choose a first and second team from the good material which turned out for this sport. Only three letter girls, Dare Kuester, Julia Shapiro, and Lucille Cline, returned this year, however, and there was great competition for the remaining positions on both teams. In order to determine which six should be chosen, a great many short practice games were played between teams made up from our own girls, and the squad derived much fun as well as knowledge of basketball tactics from this clean intramural rivalry.

After no little consideration, our coach, Miss Webb, chose Julia Shapiro and Lucille Cline, forwards; Dare Kuester and Evie Lawson, centers; Elsie Robinson and Margie Walden, guards, for the first team.

The Justice "B" team was made up of Gertrude Camp and La Verne Camp, forwards; Beverly and Gwendolyn Glick, centers; Willie Mae Doss and Rebecca West, guards.

The first outside game of the season was played with Cathedral, who defeated the John Marshall girls by a score of 42-21. This game showed our lassies that they needed more practice, and they set out determined to improve their team. They made up for their defeat in the next game by overcoming Petersburg girls, 21 to 8.

Their next game was scheduled with St. Catherine's School, but due to the fact that the St. Catherine girls were quarantined for scarlet fever, the game had to be cancelled.

In the third outside contest of the season, the John Marshall girls met and defeated the Pan-American Business College girls by the terrific score of 51 to 27.

The peak of every season is the game with the Thomas Jefferson girls, our city rivals. This year the teams were quite evenly matched and the contest was a very close and hard fought one. The Justice girls finally were able to pull a little ahead, and came out of the game defeating their opponents 22 to 19.

A post-season game to take the place of the cancelled one was played with the St. Catherine team. The St. Catherine girls beat John Marshall 22-10 in the game played on their court. Our guards were unable to hold their forwards, while their close guarding kept our forwards out of the scoring zone.

The Justice "B" team played a regular schedule, as did the regulars—with St. Catherine's, Thomas Jefferson, and Westhampton College Freshmen. These games were played as double-headers, thus having both our second teams playing the same day. Our "B" team lost to the Westhampton Freshmen and to St. Catherine's, but beat Thomas Jefferson, 12-10.

Our teams feel that their season has been a successful one, since they have learned a great deal of basketball and had much fun together.

Appreciation

THE STAFF of the 1938 MARSHALLITE wish to express their sincere appreciation to certain persons and firms for their assistance and co-operation in the publication of this Annual:

Mr. A. C. Ford, of the Virginia Engraving Company showed a keen interest in the development of the MARSHALLITE. His patience and help is greatly appreciated.

To the Everett Waddey Company, who handled the printing job, we are grateful.

The staff of Foster's Studio and Dementi's Studio were always willing to co-operate and make our pictures whenever and wherever the occasion demanded.

In our school, Miss Rebecca Angel and her entire Typewriting Department, Mr. Ira Grimes of the Bookkeeping Department, and Miss Wilhelmina Wright, as adviser of the Staff, we sincerely thank for their help.

To the advertisers who helped make our Annual possible, we wish to express our appreciation. We ask you to patronize them.

Is the Seed of Success in You?

THAT IS THE QUESTION that every young man faces as the time draws near for him to enter the business world. If you are able to save money, you can succeed; if not, you will fail! You may not think so, but you will lose as sure as fate, for the seed of success is not in you. Man has two fundamental weaknesses: His inability to hang on to life as long as he desires and his inability to hang on to his material possessions. Life insurance is the only plan which is certain to offset these two fundamental weaknesses. It not only assists him to save his money but guarantees to him the safest investment and the most secure protection.

VIRGINIA ENGRAVING COMPANY

101 GOVERNOR STREET, RICHMOND, VIRGINIA

A COLLEGE ANNUAL requires the undivided interest and attention of Editor, Business Manager and Publisher if it is to present that much desired appearance of Character.

¶ For that reason, Everett Waddey Company handles only a limited number of annuals each year—a limited number so as to permit proper service.

¶ Everett Waddey Company of Richmond, Virginia, alone was responsible to the Staff of THE MARSHALLITE for 1938 for the correct manufacture of THE MARSHALLITE.
